

SATURDAY, APRIL 27TH

4:00 PM - 6:30 PM.

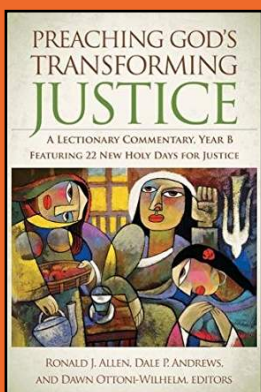

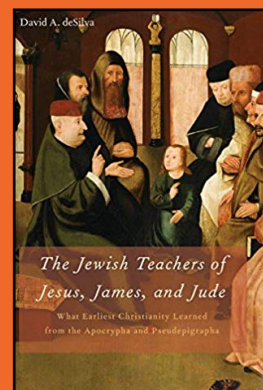

THE
LUKE/ACTS COLLOQUIUM

Join us as we end the Luke/Acts Big Read with a day of brilliant scholarship, calls to action, and articulations of hope for our life as a diocese and the life of the world.

WE WILL BE JOINED BY:

David A. deSilva, Distinguished Professor of New Testament and Greek at Ashland Theological Seminary. He is the author of over twenty-five books and involved in several major Bible translation projects, serving as the Apocrypha Editor for the Common English Bible and working on the revision of the Apocrypha for the English Standard Version.

Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm is the Brightbill Professor of Preaching and Worship at Bethany Theological Seminary. She is the author and co-author of four books, including Preaching God's Transforming Justice.

Yvonne Zimmerman is an Associate Professor of Christian Ethics at the Methodist Theological School of Ohio, whose areas of expertise include feminist theory, gender and sexuality studies, social theory, human trafficking, U.S. human trafficking policy, and liberationist ethics.

Bishop Breidenthal, who has led us through this Luke/Acts Big Read and will help bring it to its conclusion in discussion with our wonderful guests.

SAINT GEORGE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
5520 FAR HILLS AVE, DAYTON, OH 45429

It is not necessary to register for this event. Just show up, we'd love to have you! We will not be providing dinner as part of the event, but will provide a list of nearby restaurants for those who want to eat together afterwards.